

Forest River RV Surveyor Travel Trailers

Surveyor by Forest River is the true, super lightweight travel trailer. Designed specifically for Mini-Vans, these lightweight travel trailers have grown in popularity in recent years simply because they just make sense. Why invest in a gas-guzzling tow vehicle when you can buy a Surveyor that utilizes construction techniques that greatly reduce weight and still provide incredible durability and strength. Better yet, you don't even have to have a huge vehicle in order to get it on the road. Your small V-8s and SUV that you drive everyday will get you where you want to go.

Once you've arrived you can enjoy your vacation or weekend get-a-way in the rich interior of any Surveyor model you choose. We have a variety of floorplans with rear slideouts, expandable tent end beds, regular travel trailers and even fifth wheels. All our floorplans give you incredible style with raised panel residential style cabinet doors, name brand appliances, durable yet attractive flooring and more. The choice is yours. Why not make it the right one and choose a lightweight that no other comes close to in comparison. Get your Surveyor travel trailer, fifth wheel, or expandable by Forest River today!
